

RETURN OF THE TITANIC ANCHOR

A once in a lifetime opportunity to see the return journey of the full-sized replica Titanic anchor, which was originally made by Hingley's of Netherton

Sunday 15 August 2010

12 noon - 5pm • From Dudley to Netherton • FREE

12 noon - 1.30pm

Watch 20 shire horses pulling through the streets, a 16 tonne replica anchor created as part of a brand new series for Channel Four airing in the autumn

(viewing points Flood Street car park, Cinder Bank/Halesowen Road)

3 - 3.30pm

Civic presentation ceremony and siting of the anchor

(Northfield Road, Netherton)

12 noon - 5pm

Street theatre, music, dance, exhibitions, films, local history displays, fun fair, entertainment

(Netherton town centre)

Timings are approximate

Filming throughout by Twenty Twenty Television for Channel Four

For more details and road closure information visit www.dudley.gov.uk/anchor

Image courtesy of Dudley Local History & Archives Service

Dudley
Metropolitan Borough Council

